

Key Indicator – 6.5 Internal Quality Assurance System

6.5.2 The institution reviews its teaching learning process, structures & methodologies of operations and learning outcomes at periodic intervals through IQAC set up as per norms

Action Taken

Academic audit refers to a systematic way of reviewing the quality of education in an institute. The teams interacted with the faculty members and received their feedback on teaching, research and evaluation. The teams also interacted with the students to get their feedback and suggestions regarding infrastructural facilities available, performance of teachers, evaluation methods adopted and teaching learning process. The collaborative approach between the audit teams and departments, coupled with a commitment to transparency and continuous improvement, reflects Action taken.
