

Key Indicator - 6.3 Faculty Empowerment Strategies

6.3.1 The institution has performance appraisal system, effective welfare measures for teaching and non-teaching staff and avenues for career development/progression

Performance Appraisal

The institution has a Performance-Based Appraisal System (PBAS) to assess the quality of the faculty. This system offers valuable insights about faculty which enables the management in providing excellent teaching, learning, and research environment. The appraisal process analyses employees' yearly performance in three categories - Category-I focuses on Teaching, Learning and Evaluation Related Activities. Category-II assess the Professional Development, Co-curricular and Extension Activities of the faculty. Category-III values the quality of the Research and Related Contributions attained of the faculty. The Performance of the faculty are appraised by the Head of the Department, reviewed by the Principal and there after a comprehensive report is presented in the Governing Body Meet.
