

Key Indicator - 6.3 Faculty Empowerment Strategies*6.3.1 The institution has performance appraisal system, effective welfare measures for teaching and non-teaching staff and avenues for career development/progression*Self Appraisal

The institution has a Self-Appraisal System which offers valuable insights about faculty that enables them to enhance their teaching, learning, and research. The appraisal process analyses one-selves annually in three categories - Category-I focuses on Teaching, Learning and Evaluation Related Activities. Category-II assess the Professional Development, Co-curricular and Extension Activities involved by the faculty. Category-III values the quality of the Research and Related Contributions of the faculty. Appraisal scores in each category are rated using 4-point scale, score 4 - Very Good, 3 – Good, 2 – Satisfactory and 1 – Need to improve. The evaluated forms are reviewed by the Head of the Department and the Principal.
